Agreeably to para 11 of the Bengal Medical Code of rules dated 3rd Feb 1877 sanctioned by the Govt of India on 23rd March 1877 the attendance of Medical Pupils undergoing training in the Medical

Medical College is fixed at Rs 9 —

Special sanction would seem unnecessary, unless the D[y] Surgeon Genl's attention be drawn to the rules quoted above? — If still in force yes but were they not new rules promulgated about a month ago? by Coop

A search has been made but no newer rules found. On enquiry in the Audit Department I learn that these are the rules under which they audit such bills.

Subject

Has the honor to state that from a communication received from the Secretary to the Surgeon General I. M. D. dated 7th Instant No. 618 A

It appears that Medical Pupils while attending College should draw the College rate of pay without reference to the length of their pre-collegiate training.

Honored Sir

Owing to the great inconvenience I am put to (being a stranger to the place) I take the opportunity of forwarding these few lines to your honor's kind Consideration hoping that these will meet with success

I, a Mysore Medical Pupil in the Subordinate Medical Department undergoing Collegiate Course receiving Rs. 8-0-0 per mensem from the date I joined the College and this is hardly sufficient for my subsistence &c but I should receive Rs. 9-0-0 during my 1st year Collegiate Course, agreeable to the Madras Medical Code

From

Therefore I beg your honor to forward this to the Deputy Surgeon General, Mysore & Commissariat Durbar Medical Department

For which act I shall ever feel thankful

I remain Sir
